391 MATCHING GREEN LAGER

391st Bomber Squadron flew from Matching Airfield during World War II. They were instrumental in bringing an end to the war with their relentless bombing raids deep into enemy territory. 391 Matching Green Lager is a tribute to those brave airmen of Matching Airfield in Essex. 391 is Matching Green's first ever dedicated local beer – all ingredients are sourced only from England, it is brewed locally and drunk exclusively by the patrons of The Chequers Matching Green... for now.

Unlike most mass produced lagers from the big breweries, 391 is a naturally brewed beer with no unnecessary chemicals added.
